This means that when the Term expires the Landlord can recover possession as set out in section 21 of that Act unless the Landlord gives the Tenant a notice under paragraph 2 of Schedule 2A to that Act stating that the tenancy is no longer an assured shorthold tenancy.
- 3. THE Tenant agrees with the Landlord -
 - 3.1 To pay the Rent as set out above
 - 3.2 (a) To pay any council tax which the Tenant is obliged to pay under the Local Government Finance Act 1992 or any regulations under that Act

Appropriate fees must be paid once a new tenancy agreement has been created and correct documentation collected.

4. IF the Tenant

- 4.1 is at least 14 days late in paying the Rent or any part of it, whether or not the Rent has been formally demanded, or
- 4.2 has broken any of the terms of this Agreement

then, subject to any statutory provisions, the Landlord may recover possession of the Property and the tenancy will come to an end. Any other rights or remedies the Landlord may have will remain in force. (Note: The Landlord cannot recover possession without an order of the court under the Housing Act 1988. Except in certain cases set out in the Act of substantial arrears of rent, the court has a discretion whether or not to make an order and is likely to take account of whether unpaid rent has later been paid or a breach of the terms of the tenancy has been made good.)

(Note: This clause does not affect the Tenant's rights under the Protection from Eviction Act 1977.)

5. THE Landlord agrees with the Tenant

- 5.1 That the Tenant has the right to possess and enjoy the Property during the tenancy without any interruption from the Landlord or any person claiming through or in trust for the Landlord. But:
- (a) this clause does not limit any of the rights under this Agreement which the Tenant has agreed to allow the Landlord to exercise
 - (b) this clause does not prevent the Landlord from taking lawful steps to enforce his rights against the Tenant if the Tenant breaks any of the terms of this Agreement
- 5.2 To pay all charges in respect of the Property except those which by the terms of this Agreement the Tenant has expressly agreed to pay and to pay to the Tenant the amount of any such charge which another person has compelled the Tenant to pay.

- 5.4 If the Property is damaged to such an extent that the Tenant cannot live in it, the Rent will cease to be payable until the Property is rebuilt or repaired so that the Tenant can live there again unless:
- (a) the cause of the damage is something which the Tenant did or failed to do as a result of which the Landlord's insurance policy relating to the Property has become void; and
 - (b) the Landlord had given the Tenant notice of what the policy required
- Any dispute about whether this clause applies must be submitted to arbitration under Part I of the Arbitration Act 1996 if both parties agree to that in writing after the dispute has arisen.
- 5.5 To keep in repair the structure and exterior of the Property including drains, gutters, and external pipes, and to keep in repair and proper working order the installations for the supply of water, gas and electricity, for sanitation (including basins, sinks, baths and sanitary conveniences) and for space heating and heating water. This clause does not oblige the Landlord to repair until the Tenant has given notice of the defect and the Tenant is obliged to take proper care of the Property and to do small jobs which a reasonable tenant would do.
- 5.6 To ensure that all appliances in the Property satisfy all applicable safety requirements

- 6. IF this Agreement is signed before the Landlord or the Landlord's agent has fully complied with all relevant prescribed requirements under the immigration Act 2014, the grant in clause 1 above is conditional upon the Landlord or the Landlord's agent being satisfied on reasonable grounds after completion of the prescribed requirements that the grant of rights given by the Agreement would not give rise to a contravention of the provisions Act

Energy Efficiency Rating

The graph shows the current energy efficiency of your home.

The higher the rating the lower your fuel bills are likely to be.

The potential rating shows the effect of undertaking the recommendations on page 3.

The average energy efficiency rating for a dwelling in England and Wales is band D (rating 60).

The EPC rating shown here is based on standard assumptions about occupancy and energy use and may not reflect how energy is consumed by individual occupants.

See addendum on the last page relating to items in the table above.

Low and zero carbon energy sources

Low and zero carbon energy sources are sources of energy that release either very little or no carbon dioxide into the atmosphere when they are used. Installing these sources may help reduce energy bills as well as cutting carbon. There are none provided for this home.

Your home's heat demand

For most homes, the vast majority of energy costs derive from heating the home. Where applicable, this table shows the energy that could be saved in this property by insulating the loft and walls, based on typical energy use (shown within brackets as it is a reduction in energy use).

Heat demand	Existing dwelling	Impact of loft insulation	Impact of cavity wall insulation	Impact of solid wall insulation
Space heating (kWh per year)	8,774	N/A	(1,488)	N/A
Water heating (kWh per year)	2,106

You could receive Renewable Heat Incentive (RHI) payments and help reduce carbon emissions by replacing your existing heating system with one that generates renewable heat, subject to meeting minimum energy efficiency requirements. The estimated energy required for space and water heating will form the basis of the payments. For more information, search for the domestic RHI on the www.gov.uk website.

Recommendations

The measures below will improve the energy performance of your dwelling. The performance ratings after improvements listed below are cumulative; that is, they assume the improvements have been installed in the order that they appear in the table. Further information about the recommended measures and other simple actions you could take today to save money is available at www.gov.uk/energy-grants-calculator. Before installing measures, you should make sure you have secured the appropriate permissions, where necessary. Such permissions might include permission from your landlord (if you are a tenant) or approval under Building Regulations for certain types of work.

Recommended measures	Indicative cost	Typical savings per year	Rating after improvement
Cavity wall insulation	£500 - £1,500	£ 73	C71
Floor insulation (suspended floor)	£800 - £1,200	£ 25	C72
Replace boiler with new condensing boiler	£2,200 - £3,000	£ 51	C75
Solar water heating	£4,000 - £6,000	£ 31	C76
Solar photovoltaic panels, 2.5 kWp	£5,000 - £8,000	£ 287	B87

Alternative measures

There are alternative measures below which you could also consider for your home.

- External insulation with cavity wall insulation
- Micro CHP

Opportunity to benefit from a Green Deal on this property

Green Deal Finance allows you to pay for some of the cost of your improvements in instalments under a Green Deal Plan (note that this is a credit agreement, but with instalments being added to the electricity bill for the property). The availability of a Green Deal Plan will depend upon your financial circumstances. There is a limit to how much Green Deal Finance can be used, which is determined by how much energy the improvements are estimated to save for a 'typical household'.

You may be able to obtain support towards repairs or replacements of heating systems and/or basic insulation measures, if you are in receipt of qualifying benefits or tax credits. To learn more about this scheme and the rules about eligibility, call the Energy Saving Advice Service on 0300 123 1234 for England and Wales.

About the impact of buildings on the environment

One of the biggest contributors to global warming is carbon dioxide. The energy we use for heating, lighting and power in homes produces over a quarter of the UK's carbon dioxide emissions.

The average household causes about 6 tonnes of carbon dioxide every year. Based on this assessment, your home currently produces approximately 3.3 tonnes of carbon dioxide every year. Adopting the recommendations in this report can reduce emissions and protect the environment. If you were to install these recommendations you could reduce this amount by 2.0 tonnes per year. You could reduce emissions even more by switching to renewable energy sources.

The environmental impact rating is a measure of a home's impact on the environment in terms of carbon dioxide (CO₂) emissions based on standardised assumptions about occupancy and energy use. The higher the rating the less impact it has on the environment.

1. Definitions and Explanations of commonly used terms

Adjudication

This is an evidence-based decision making process which results in a Decision about how a Dispute should be resolved.

Adjudicator

This is a qualified expert appointed by us to independently and impartially consider a Dispute and provide a Decision.

Assured Shorthold Tenancy

This is a tenancy defined as an Assured Shorthold Tenancy under the Housing Act 1998.

Calendar Day

A Calendar Day is any day of the week.

Custodial Scheme (or Scheme)

A Custodial Scheme is a scheme for the protection of residential tenancy deposits. Custodial Schemes were established in England and Wales under the Housing Act 2004. Customer Service Centre

This is our telephone contact centre. You can contact the Customer Service Centre on 0330 303 0033 between 8am and 6.30pm on Working Days. Our Customer Service Centre closes on bank holidays in England and Wales. Please check the homepage of our website for details.

Deposit

This is the money a Tenant gives to their Landlord under the Tenancy Agreement or in connection with the tenancy, who then pays it to us for safe keeping. The Deposit is used as a security against a breach of the Tenant's obligations under the Tenancy Agreement, for example, failure to keep the Property in good repair and failure to pay the rent. Deposits in relation to Assured Shorthold Tenancies are limited to 5 weeks' rent where the annual rent is less than £50,000, or 6 weeks' rent where the annual rent is £50,000 or over.

Deposit ID

This is the unique identifying reference number allocated to a Deposit following the successful submission of the Deposit to us.

Dispute

If at the end of a Tenancy, the Landlord and the Tenant cannot agree on how much of the Deposit should be given to each Party, this is a Dispute.

Dispute Resolution Service

Our Dispute Resolution Service is an independent service we provide to resolve Disputes and is a free alternative to going to court. If you use our Dispute Resolution Service, we will collate and summarise evidence provided by each person involved in the Dispute and one of our Adjudicators will review the evidence and make a Decision on how much of the Deposit should go to each Party.

Enhanced Authentication

This is an optional service for Landlords and Tenants which requires a 6 digit code to be entered via the online service to enable specific changes or transactions.

Form(s)

These are all paper forms you must submit to us in order to use the Scheme and include the Cheque Deposit Submission Form, the Deposit Return Request Form (Tenants) or Deposit Repayment Request Form (Landlords), the Statutory Declaration and the Statutory Declaration Notice.

Initial Requirements

The Initial Requirements are those actions the Landlord has to complete within 30 days of receipt of a Deposit under the Housing Act 2004. They are:

- 3.1 After taking a Deposit from a Tenant, the Landlord must protect the Deposit within 30 Calendar Days of receiving it in order to avoid the consequences set out in the Housing Act 2004. We will accept Deposits submitted after 30 Calendar Days.
- 3.2 Once we have protected a Deposit, we will send confirmation to the Landlord, the Tenant and any Relevant Person (see section 12 for details about what we send). The Landlord must also give the Prescribed Information to the Tenant. Landlords can print a Prescribed Information form which is pre-populated with the information they have entered into the Landlord's online account at www.depositprotection.com. The Landlord will need to provide additional information to complete the Prescribed Information.
- 3.3 At the end of the Tenancy, the Landlord and Tenant should try to agree how much of the Deposit should be paid to the Landlord, Tenant or the Relevant Person (if there is one). If the Parties can agree, the Landlord and Tenant must confirm the following on their repayment Forms or online submissions:
 - 3.3.1 the amount of the Deposit that should be repaid to the Landlord with reasons; and
 - 3.3.2 the amount of the Deposit that should be repaid to the Tenant with reasons.
- 3.4 If the Landlord and the Tenant agree, we will pay out the amount the Landlord and Tenant agree should be repaid to each of them as detailed on the repayment Form or online submission.
- 3.5 If there is a Dispute regarding the repayment of part or all of the Deposit, it will be referred to our Dispute Resolution Service, unless we are instructed otherwise in writing.
- 3.6 If one Party instructs us that they do not wish to use the Dispute Resolution Service, the Deposit will be suspended until we are notified that both Parties do wish to use the Dispute Resolution Service, or we are informed that the Parties have reached agreement as to distribution of the Deposit, or we are presented with a court order relating to repayment of the Deposit in accordance with section 24.
- 3.7 The Landlord or Tenant may follow the Statutory Declaration Process if they have no current address for the other Party or if the other Party fails to respond to a written notice from the claiming Party claiming some or all of the Deposit within 14 Calendar Days of the date of the notice.

11.2.1.2 Payments we receive can be allocated to custodial Deposits manually or automatically. Automatic allocation will only occur if the amount paid exactly matches a custodial Deposit awaiting payment and/or the reference number on the Landlord's bank transfer matches the reference specified by the Landlord. If for any reason we are unable to match a payment to a Deposit, then the funds will be credited to the Landlord's account for the Landlord to allocate manually.

11.2.1.3 If manual allocation is required, the Landlord must log in to their online account and manually allocate the submitted funds to the relevant custodial Deposit. It is the Landlord's sole responsibility to manually allocate funds in order to ensure that the Deposit is protected.

The reverse of the cheque should be marked with the Landlord's ID and the Deposit ID for the relevant Tenancy.
- 11.2.3.4 If the cheque does not meet all of the criteria above, we reserve the right to reject it and return it to the Landlord within 4 Working Days of receipt, identifying the reason for its rejection.
- 11.2.3.5 Accepted cheques will be banked within 1 Working Day of receipt. We will issue a confirmation that the Deposit has been protected within 5 Calendar Days of a cleared cheque.

 - 12.1.3 the email address of any Relevant Person registered on the Deposit. We will also send the Relevant Person a certificate confirming protection of the Deposit.
- 12.2 Tenants will be able to use their email address and password to log in to the online service and view the Deposit, a certificate confirming protection of the Deposit, Tenancy details and other information we hold regarding the Tenancy.
- 12.3 If, at the end of a Tenancy's fixed term period, the Tenancy continues on a statutory periodic basis or a new fixed term period is agreed, we will continue to protect the Deposit and treat it as if it had been received in respect of the statutory periodic tenancy or new fixed term tenancy.

- 13.3.1.3 If an incoming Landlord contacts us with reasonable supporting evidence which suggests that the Landlord

3.2.8 Once the Nominated Tenant has responded we will send a notification for the Landlord to review the Nominated Tenant's response and invite the Landlord to accept or reject the Nominated Tenant's response.

3.2.9 If the Nominated Tenant has agreed to any or all of the claims for deductions made by the Landlord we will pay the agreed sums to the Landlord in accordance with their direction within 5 Working Days of the Landlord confirming their acceptance of the Nominated Tenant's response.

3.2.10 If the Nominated Tenant has responded to our notification confirming that they do not agree with all or part of the claims for deductions made by the Landlord in the Landlord's repayment request, but does agree to the Dispute being referred to our Dispute Resolution Service it will be referred to our Dispute Resolution Service in accordance with the procedure set out in sections 20 to 23 of these Terms and Conditions provided that the Landlord also confirms that they agree to use our Dispute Resolution Service.

3.2.11 If the Nominated Tenant has responded to our notification confirming that they do not agree to use our Dispute Resolution Service, but the Landlord does, the Deposit will be placed on hold until either the Tenant agrees to use our Dispute Resolution Service, or until the Parties reach agreement and communicate that agreement to us or until we receive a court order. Please see section 24 for more details.

4.4.2 does not agree with the repayment request made by the Nominated Tenant, the Nominated Tenant's request will be rejected and the Landlord will need to make a repayment request of their own.

5. Repayment requests on paper or by the Customer Service Centre

- 5.1 The Landlord can complete a Deposit Repayment Request Form in order to make deductions from a Deposit.
- 5.2 The Tenant can complete a Deposit Return Request Form in order to reclaim the whole or part of a Deposit.
- 5.3 On receipt of either form the DPS will invite the other Party to respond to the claim by way of a response Form.
- 5.4 If there is a Dispute, the Landlord and the Tenant must confirm a breakdown of the total amount in dispute and the Parties should confirm that:
 - 5.4.1 they each agree that the Dispute be referred to our Dispute Resolution Service in accordance with these Terms and Conditions; and
 - 5.4.2 they will be bound by the Decision of the Adjudicator.
- 5.5 If a Party fails to provide us with any of the above information, we will reject the relevant Form and refer it back to the initiating Party for resolution.
- 5.6 Parties can also respond to claims by calling our Customer Service Centre.

6. The Statutory Declaration Process

6.1 When can it be used?

- 6.1.1 The Statutory Declaration Process is a method of repayment. It is used when:
 - 6.1.1.1 the Landlord has no current address for the Tenant; or
 - 6.1.1.2 the other Party has failed to respond to the claiming Party's written notice in relation to the distribution of the Deposit within 14 Calendar Days. In this case a copy of the written notice sent to the other Party must be attached. If a repayment claim has been started online, this will be deemed written notice, evidence of which does not need to be attached;
 - 6.1.1.3 the Tenant has no current address for the Landlord; or
 - 6.1.1.4 the Landlord fails to respond to the Tenant's written notice requiring that the Tenant be paid some or all of the Deposit within 14 Calendar Days of Landlord's receipt of Tenant's notice.
 - 6.1.1.5 a liability of the Tenant to the Landlord arising under the Tenancy which relates to damage to the Property, or loss of or damage to property at the Property.
- 6.1.2 The following criteria must be met before the Statutory Declaration Process can be used:
 - 6.1.2.1 at least 14 Calendar Days must have passed since the end of the Tenancy (i.e. the contractual end of the Tenancy or where notice has been given and has expired); and
 - 6.1.2.2 agreement has not been reached between the Landlord and Tenant about the Deposit repayment; and
 - 6.1.2.3 one of the relevant conditions set out in (a)(i) to (a)(v) above have been met; and
 - 6.1.2.4 the claiming Party believes they should be repaid some or all of the Deposit; and
 - 6.1.2.5 any amount claimed by the Landlord must be referable to:
 - 6.1.2.5.1 an amount of unpaid rent or any other sum due under the terms of the Tenancy; or
 - 6.1.2.5.2 a liability of the Tenant to the Landlord arising under or in connection with the Tenancy which relates to damage to the Property, or loss of or damage to property at the Property. Claims for damage caused by fair wear and tear will be rejected.

6.2 The Statutory Declaration Process

- 6.2.1 The Party who wishes to use the Statutory Declaration Process must provide us with a Statutory Declaration making a claim for all or part of the Deposit. This must be at least 14 Calendar Days after the Tenancy has ended.
- 6.2.2 Parties can get a Statutory Declaration through their online account or by calling 0330 303 0033. If the Party requests a Statutory Declaration online it will be partially populated with the Tenancy details which we hold. This document can be modified by the Party and printed in order to be completed.
- 6.2.3 The Statutory Declaration must be sworn or affirmed in the presence of a solicitor, a commissioner for oaths, or a magistrate.
- 6.2.4 The Statutory Declaration must contain the following information:
 - 6.2.4.1 the date on which the Tenancy ended;
 - 6.2.4.2 confirmation that the Parties have failed to reach agreement about repayment of the Deposit, with details of any communications between them since the end of the Tenancy;

- 6.2.4.3 justification for the amount of the Deposit claimed, with particulars of any facts relating to it (including a calculation);
- 6.2.4.4 confirmation of whether the Statutory Declaration is being made on the basis that:
- 6.2.4.4.1 the Party making the claim has no current address for, or other means of contacting the other Party. In this case the claiming Party must give details of any address (other than the Property) and other contact details including telephone numbers or email addresses) which they have for the other Party; or
 - 6.2.4.4.2 the other Party has failed to respond to the claiming Party's written notice in relation to the distribution of the Deposit within 14 Calendar Days. In this case a copy of the written notice sent to the other Party must be attached. If a repayment claim has been sent to the other Party via the online service, this will be deemed written notice, evidence of which does not need to be attached.
- 6.2.4.5 any information the claiming Party has as to the whereabouts of the other person;
- 6.2.4.6 confirmation that the claiming Party gives their consent for the Dispute to be resolved through our Dispute Resolution Service (in the event of the other Party disputing that the claiming Party should be paid all or part of the Deposit):
- 6.2.4.7 confirmation that the claiming Party considers that they are entitled to be paid all or part of the Deposit as claimed; and
- 6.2.4.8 the claiming Party makes a Statutory Declaration in the knowledge that if they knowingly and wilfully make a false declaration, they may be liable to prosecution under Section 6 of the Perjury Act 1911.

1. Statutory Declaration Process - Statutory Declaration Notice and Resolution

- 1.1 Once we have received a properly completed Statutory Declaration which meets the above requirements, we will issue a Statutory Declaration Notice and a summary of the claim to the other Party's registered address, asking them to indicate within 14 Calendar Days of receipt:
- 1.1.1 whether they accept that the claiming Party should be paid the whole of the amount claimed;
 - 1.1.2 whether they accept that the claiming Party should be paid part of the amount claimed and if so, how much; and
 - 1.1.3 if they do not accept that the claiming Party should be paid the whole of the amount claimed, whether they consent to the Dispute being resolved by our Dispute Resolution Service. We will also, where possible, send notification that a postal notice has been issued by email or SMS.
- 1.2 The Party who receives the Statutory Declaration Notice must complete it and return it to us so that we receive it within 14 Calendar Days of when we issued it (the Statutory Declaration Notice deadline). The responding Party can also submit their response via the online service by logging into their online account or by calling our Customer Service Contact Centre by the Statutory Declaration Notice deadline. They must indicate their responses to a. (i) – (iii) above. If we do not receive the completed Statutory Declaration Notice by post, via the online service or via a call to the Customer Service Contact Centre within the Statutory Declaration Notice deadline, we will release the full amount claimed to the claiming Party within 10 Calendar Days of the Statutory Declaration Notice deadline.
- 1.3 If the receiving Party completes and returns or responds to the Statutory Declaration Notice so that we receive it or their response within the Statutory Declaration Notice deadline and confirming that they agree that the whole or part of the amount claimed should be paid to the claiming Party, we will pay any agreed amount to the claiming Party within 10 Calendar Days of the date when we receive the Statutory Declaration Notice.
- 1.4 If the other Party completes and returns or responds to the Statutory Declaration Notice so that we receive it or their response before the Statutory Declaration Notice deadline and confirming that they do not agree that the claiming Party should be paid all or any of the amount claimed, we will inform the claiming Party that their claim has been rejected wholly or in part and will request evidence from both the other Party and the claiming Party in relation to the dispute. Where users do not have an online account we will provide a summary of the other Party's Statutory Declaration Notice.
- 1.5 Details of the other Party's rejection reason(s) can be viewed via the claiming Party's online account. Once we have issued the request for evidence both Parties will have 14 Calendar Days from the date of issue to respond.
- 1.6 If the other Party completes and returns or responds to the Statutory Declaration Notice so that we receive it or their response within 14 Calendar Days, but does not indicate whether they consent to the Dispute being resolved by our Dispute Resolution Service, we shall assume they consent to the use of our Dispute Resolution Service.
- 1.7 At the end of the 14 days, the case will be referred to an Adjudicator (see Adjudication at section 23 below).
- 1.8 We will release any undisputed amount to the Party or Parties concerned.
- 1.9 Any evidence submitted by either Party after the Dispute has been referred to the Adjudicator will not be considered by the Adjudicator if a Decision has already been made. We reserve the right to refuse to pass any evidence to the Adjudicator after the cut-off date for submission of evidence has passed.

2. The Dispute Resolution Service - General rules for using our Dispute Resolution Service

- 2.1 To use our Dispute Resolution Service, Landlords and Tenants must have completed a repayment Form or online repayment request with notification of a Dispute or completed the Statutory Declaration Process. They must consent or be deemed to have consented to our Dispute Resolution Service and confirm that they will be bound by the Decision.
- 2.2 If the repayment Form or the online repayment request has been completed incorrectly or if any of the mandatory declarations have been struck out, then the Dispute cannot be referred to our Dispute Resolution Service. In this case, we will direct those involved to pursue the Dispute through the courts. As detailed in section 24 below, we will continue to hold the Deposit until we receive a court order instructing us to repay it, or an instruction to repay it signed by both Parties.
- 2.3 If you agree to use our Dispute Resolution Service, you may not withdraw your agreement in the future.
- 2.4 If either Party does not agree to use our Dispute Resolution Service to resolve the Dispute, they must resolve the matter by agreement or through the courts. The Party refusing to use our service must start the required court proceedings within 6 months of notifying us of their refusal. If they do not, we may award the disputed amount to the other Party.
- 2.5 We will only send Disputes to our Dispute Resolution Service if both the Landlord and Tenants comply with these Terms and Conditions.
- 2.6 Use of our Dispute Resolution Service does not remove the duty of one Party to pay the other any other amounts which are due and not subject to a Dispute.
- 2.7 Use of our Dispute Resolution Service is free of charge except in circumstances set out in subsection p and section 25 below and except as to the Parties' own costs. Each Party must bear any costs they incur through participating in the Dispute Resolution Service. We will not make any award to cover these costs.
- 2.8 The Landlord and Tenant are free to settle the Dispute between themselves at any point during the Adjudication. They must notify us of their agreement to do so by providing an instruction signed by both Parties. We will return the Deposit in accordance with the agreement when we receive the instruction.
- 2.9 The Adjudicator can only make a Decision to award up to the value of the Deposit.
- 2.10 If either Party does not comply with any of these Terms and Conditions, the Dispute may be rejected and the Deposit will be subject to repayment in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.
- 2.11 We may decide in our absolute discretion whether a Party has complied with these Terms and Conditions and is eligible to participate or continue to participate in the Dispute Resolution process.
- 2.12 A Dispute must not be the subject of an existing court action.
- 2.13 The Adjudicator will not make an award in relation to damage caused by fair wear and tear only.
- 2.14 We will not deal with Disputes through the Dispute Resolution Service where, in our reasonable opinion:
 - 2.14.1 they relate to matters other than the return of the Deposit; and/or
 - 2.14.2 either Party has indicated their intention to issue legal proceedings in respect of any of the issues raised in the Dispute; and/or
 - 2.14.3 the Dispute is not suitable for resolution via the Dispute Resolution because for example the facts and matters are unduly complicated and more suitable for a Court to decide upon and/or
 - 2.14.4 the issues raised have already been decided upon by a court and an order in accordance with section 24(a) has been made by the Court;
- 2.15 The Adjudicator may also reject Disputes which, in their reasonable opinion:
 - 2.15.1 are being pursued in an unreasonable manner;
 - 2.15.2 are frivolous;
 - 2.15.3 are vexatious; and/or
 - 2.15.4 seek to raise matters which were previously decided by a similar dispute resolution process, or matters which, in the opinion of the Adjudicator, exceeds their jurisdiction.
- 2.16 Landlords and Tenants can only make evidence submissions when requested to the Dispute Resolution Team by post to the address set out in section 36, or by emailing disputes@depositprotection.com. We cannot receive evidence in external cloud storage. We must receive evidence submissions before 11:59:59 p.m. on the day of the previously advised deadline. We reserve the right to refuse to pass any evidence to the adjudicator after the date for submission of evidence has passed. We also reserve the right to return any physical evidence received before a Dispute is formally commenced to the party sending it.

- 2.17 If a Dispute relates to a Tenancy that is not an Assured Shorthold Tenancy, we reserve the right to charge the Landlord a fee of £500 plus VAT, or 10% of the Deposit amount, whichever is the greater for the administration of the Dispute. Where possible, we will deduct this from any amount awarded to the Landlord as a result of the Decision. If there is no award to the Landlord, or the amount awarded does not cover the fee, the Landlord must pay us within 14 Calendar Days of our request for payment.
- 2.18 We reserve the right to reject a request to use our Dispute Resolution Service if the tenancy is not an Assured Shorthold Tenancy or when the Deposit is £5,000 or more in amount.

3. Repayment Request - Collection of evidence

- 3.1 Upon receipt of a duly completed online Deposit repayment submission notifying us of a Dispute, we will write to both the Landlord and the Tenant, inviting both Parties to submit their evidence in relation to the Dispute. The Landlord and Tenant must ensure that we are in receipt of their evidence within 14 Calendar Days of our invitation being issued; failure to do so could result in the Deposit being paid to the other Party contrary to the Landlord's or Tenant's intentions.
- 3.2 If the Landlord or Tenant does not wish to submit any additional evidence in support of their claim, the Landlord or Tenant must notify us in writing confirming that they will not be submitting any additional evidence, within the 14 Calendar Days of our invitation being issued.
- 3.3 If, within 14 Calendar Days of the invitation being issued by us, the Landlord or Tenant fails to submit any evidence, or in the alternative confirm in writing that they have no additional evidence to submit, we will release the disputed amount to the other Party within 10 Calendar Days of the deadline for the Parties' response.
- 3.4 In the event that neither Party complies with the requirement of section c above, we will repay any disputed sum to the Tenant.

4. Dispute Evidence - the details

- 4.1 The Landlord's evidence should include, but is not limited to the following:
- 4.1.1 a statement of the precise issues which are in Dispute and the reasons for the amount of any Deposit claimed;
 - 4.1.2 the signed check-in inventory and schedule of condition;
 - 4.1.3 vacating instructions;
 - 4.1.4 the signed check-out inventory and schedule of condition;
 - 4.1.5 a signed and legally-compliant written Tenancy Agreement;
 - 4.1.6 a schedule of the cost of any works sought to be deducted from the Deposit together with estimates, invoices and receipts (produced by an independent or third party) and photographs if available;
 - 4.1.7 a statement of the rent account, if relevant;
 - 4.1.8 if housing benefit has been paid, a letter from the Housing Benefit Department stating when it will stop, or that it has stopped;
 - 4.1.9 any other relevant information including photographs, DVDs, correspondence or receipts; and
 - 4.1.10 confirmation that they have contacted the Tenant and provide a copy of any correspondence between them, or details of their discussions.
- 4.2 The Tenant's evidence should include, but is not limited to the following:
- 4.2.1 the reasons why the Tenant denies that the Landlord is entitled to the disputed amount; and
 - 4.2.2 any other relevant information including photographs, DVDs, correspondence or receipts.
- 4.3 Any photographs or digital evidence should be signed or a statement should be attached signed by the Party providing them and showing the date on which they were taken.
- 4.4 If either Party cannot provide any of the above evidence, they should explain to us why they are unable to do so. We will then exercise our discretion to decide whether to allow the Dispute to proceed to Adjudication.
- 4.5 The Nominated Tenant must complete the Tenant's evidence on behalf of all Joint Tenants named on the Tenancy Agreement.
- 4.6 Following receipt of each Party's evidence, we may request extra information or clarification.
- 4.7 It is the Landlord's sole responsibility to send us a signed, valid Tenancy Agreement before we pass the case to the Adjudicator. If we do not receive a copy of the Tenancy Agreement, we will still pass the Dispute papers to the Adjudicator. Claims from Landlords who do not provide a valid Tenancy Agreement are likely to fail.

5. The Adjudication

5.1 Once the deadline has passed for evidence submission, we will provide the following to the Adjudicator:

5.1.1 the Landlord's evidence, Statutory Declaration or Statutory Declaration Notice;

5.1.2 the Tenant's evidence, Statutory Declaration or Statutory Declaration Notice;

5.1.3 any extra evidence from the Landlord or the Tenant.

5.2 If the Parties submit evidence after the Adjudicator has already reached a Decision, they will not be able to take any further evidence into consideration.

5.3 Our Adjudicators are fair and unbiased, and make their Decision based solely on the evidence and Forms submitted. You should submit any evidence you feel supports your case when we ask you to. If you do not submit evidence when requested, the Adjudicator will not be able to consider it when making their Decision.

5.4 The Adjudicator may:

5.4.1 make any necessary enquiries with the Parties if issues or queries arise when reviewing the evidence;

5.4.2 carry on with the Adjudication even if either Party does not comply with these Terms and Conditions, or any instruction from the Adjudicator or us;

5.4.3 stop the Adjudication if it appears that the Dispute cannot be settled this way, or if the Parties settle their Dispute before a Decision is made.

5.5 Except in circumstances set out in section d above, the Adjudicator will make a Decision within 28 Calendar Days of receiving the Dispute papers from us. The day of receipt will be the Working Day after the papers are sent to the Adjudicator.

5.6 We will notify the Parties of the Adjudicator's Decision within 2 Working Days of the Decision. The Decision is binding on both Parties and both Parties must comply with it.

5.7 The Decision cannot be appealed through the Dispute Resolution Service although nothing prevents either Party from pursuing the other through the courts if they disagree with the decision.

5.8 We will make any payment to either Party within 10 Calendar Days of the Decision.

5.9 We will make payments according to the method specified by the relevant Parties

5.10 The Adjudicator may take the initiative in ascertaining the facts and the law.

5.11 The Adjudicator may apply their discretion and judgement to the interpretation of the Tenancy Agreement and the application of the facts.

5.12 The Adjudicator may correct accidental slips or omissions in Decisions within 30 days of the Decision.

6. Court Orders

6.1 If you obtain a court order against your Landlord or Tenant, we will only release the Deposit if:

6.1.1 it refers to the Deposit and/or The DPS as the Scheme administrator; and

6.1.2 it specifies how much of the Deposit should be paid to the successful Party.

6.2 If the court order does not comply with section a above, we will not be able to release the Deposit. In this case, the order must be amended, or a third party debt order must be obtained or the matter may be referred to our Dispute Resolution Service in accordance with Section 20 of these terms and conditions for a Decision, before we can release the Deposit.

7. Costs

All aspects of our Custodial Scheme are free to use, except in the following circumstances where fees are charged:

7.1 for processing a payment to an overseas bank account we charge £25.89; and

7.2 where we are adjudicating a Dispute relating to a Tenancy which is not an Assured Shorthold Tenancy we reserve the right to charge a fee of £500 plus VAT.

8. Confidentiality

8.1 Anyone involved with an Adjudication must not reveal specific details of the case to people not connected to that Adjudication, unless required by law.

8.2 By agreeing to use our Dispute Resolution Service, you give us permission to gather and keep information about your Dispute. We may use this to publish statistics or case studies, removing any information which may identify any individuals.

9. Keeping your data safe

The following are data security Terms and Conditions which are specific to our Custodial Scheme:

9.1 if a Landlord requests a Form, we will ask for their Landlord ID and Deposit ID so we can process their query.

9.2 if a Tenant request a Form, we will ask for their Deposit ID so we can process their query.

9.3 in order to meet data protection obligations, we need callers to provide proof of their identity. This means callers will need to answer some questions about their account. If callers can't give us the right answers, we will have to end the call.

10. Liability

- 10.1 We will take reasonable care in operating our service, and we will be responsible to you for any losses or expenses suffered or incurred by you as a direct result of our negligence, wilful default or fraud. The DPS's liability in relation to any claim shall not exceed the total amount of the Deposit to which the claim relates and in any event will not exceed £5,000 in aggregate including costs and interest.
- 10.2 We do not accept liability for any indirect or consequential loss suffered by anybody or for any loss that does not arise as a result of our negligence, wilful default or fraud.
- 10.3 Neither we nor the Adjudicator are liable for anything done or omitted to be done in the discharge or purported discharge by the Adjudicator of their functions as Adjudicator unless the act or omission is in bad faith and any employee or agent of the DPS (whether that person is the Adjudicator or otherwise) is similarly protected from liability.
- 10.4 In the event that you do not comply with these Terms and Conditions and this results in loss or damage to The DPS, you shall be liable to compensate us for any such loss or damage.
- 10.5 Any limitation or exclusion of liability under these Terms and Conditions shall only operate to the extent permitted by law.
- 10.6 You must contact us immediately if you suspect that your password, Landlord ID, Deposit ID, log in details or 6 digit code for Enhanced Authentication have been lost, disclosed to, or obtained by, anyone who is unauthorised to have them, and that their integrity is threatened. Until you notify us that it has been compromised, we will assume that any instructions received in any form, which have been authenticated by your Landlord ID, Deposit ID or your log in details are genuine and are valid instructions from you and we will act accordingly. You will be liable for all such transactions.
- 10.7 Once processed, a Form or online Deposit response is a binding instruction to make payment; you are not entitled to cancel, amend or revoke such an instruction.
- 10.8 You are responsible for ensuring that any bank account details entered online for repayment are correct. Once payment has been made we are not obliged to recover funds that have been paid out incorrectly due to incorrect account details being entered online.
- 10.9 We do not accept liability for the actions of any third parties including Letting Agents.

11. Complaints

- 11.1 We hope that you are always satisfied with our service, however, if you are unhappy with our service, we have a complaints handling procedure. We can provide you with a copy upon request.
- 11.2 If you ever feel that we have fallen short of the standards we set ourselves and you have cause for complaint, please let us know. We treat all complaints seriously and investigate them fully. If a Party is dissatisfied with the outcome of an Adjudication that shall not constitute grounds for a complaint. To send us a letter, you can write to us at the address in section 36. To send us an email, please use: complaints@depositprotection.com

It is your responsibility to ensure that any communications are sent insufficient time to be received within any deadlines.

13. Online Security
